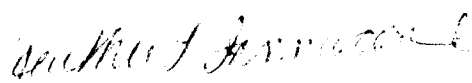
Re: Samuel & Nicole Wright
Bankruptcy 04-32834

Dear Judge O'Brien:

Pursuant to the Notice of Hearing and Motion for Vacation of Order filed by Robert Wendling on September 16, 2004, the Trustee has no objection to the Motion.

Trustee prepared a Stipulation between Trustee and Debtor agreeing to the indefinite stay of proceedings until In Re Rousey is decided by the United States Supreme Court. The Stipulation was never signed and the Motion went by default inadvertently. However, the Trustee has no objection to the vacation of the Order with a stay of proceedings until In Re Rousey is decided.

Very truly yours,



Heather L. Iannacone
