The clerk shall not issue a Certificate Regarding Property Claimed as Exempt until the debtor has complied with the service requirements of the Rule and the applicable period for objection has expired.

(c) FORM. An amendment to a schedule A, B, or C shall be labeled "Amended Schedule ___" and consist of a copy of the schedule to be amended with the changes shown thereon by underlined typewritten entries to show additions and lining out to show deletions, except an amendment solely to correct a legal description of real property which may instead conform to a form supplied by the clerk. - (3) to request that the clerk add the name and address of an omitted creditor to the matrix in a closed case, such addition having the effect of merely entitling the added creditor to receive notices if the case is reopened and notices issued but having no effect on the dischargeability of the debt.

(b) REOPENING NECESSARY. An entity which proposes to request any relief except as provided in paragraph (a) of this rule or to file any paper shall obtain an order reopening the case before requesting such relief or filing such paper.

(c) APPLICATION. A request to reopen a case shall be made by application. The application shall be served on the debtor, the United States Trustee and the trustee that served in the case. The court may rule on the application without a hearing.

(d) FILING FEE.

(1) Payment Required. Unless the fee may be waived or deferred, the applicant shall tender a filing fee to the clerk at the time the application to reopen is filed.

(2) Waiver. The filing fee may be waived where opening is requested in order to correct an administrative error by the court or the clerk.

(3) Deferral. If the applicant is the former trustee, the filing fee shall be deferred and shall be paid only from the estate and to the extent there is any value realized by the estate.

RULE 5011-1. WITHDRAWAL OF REFERENCE

A request for withdrawal of reference shall be made by motion filed with the clerk of the bankruptcy court. The motion shall show that relief by way of abstention, remand or transfer was first sought and not obtained or could not be sought from the bankruptcy court. Any other party in interest may serve and file a response within ten days after service of the motion. The clerk shall retain each original paper and transmit a certified copy of each paper to the clerk of the district court who shall file and treat the papers as a civil action and deliver the papers to a district judge for disposition. A motion for a stay under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 5011(c) shall first be made to the bankruptcy court. If such relief is later sought in the district court, the request shall be made by additional motion filed with the clerk of district court, which shall show that the relief requested was first sought and not obtained from the bankruptcy court. If withdrawal is ordered, the clerk shall transmit all papers in the relevant file and the docket to the clerk of district court who shall file and treat the papers as a civil action filed in the district court and assign the action to a district judge. These local rules shall continue to apply unless the district court orders otherwise.

RULE 5011-3. TRANSFER OF PROCEEDING

(a) TRANSFER. On the judge's own initiative or on motion of a party in interest, the bankruptcy judge shall transfer to the district court: 1) any proceeding in which the court has determined that there is a right to trial by jury of the issues for which a jury trial has been timely demanded, and the parties have not consented to the bankruptcy judge conducting the jury trial; 2) any personal injury tort or wrongful death claim; and 3) any proceeding in which the court has determined that resolution of the proceeding requires consideration both of title 11 and other laws of the United States regulating organizations and activities affecting interstate commerce, and may transfer any non-core proceeding in which a party has not consented to entry of final orders by the bankruptcy court.

(b) FILE. Upon entry of an order for transfer of a proceeding, the clerk shall transmit the docket and all papers in the relevant file to the clerk of the district court who shall file and treat such papers as a civil action filed in the district court and assign the action to a district judge.

RULE 5071-1 SCHEDULING; CONTINUANCE

A calendar for all trials and hearings shall be maintained for and as determined by each judge. The party seeking a hearing shall arrange dates for all hearings with the calendar clerk for the judge assigned the case or proceeding. Continuances may be granted only by the court and ordinarily will not be granted prior to the hearing if all creditors have received notice of the hearing. If a continuance is granted before the hearing, the party requesting the continuance shall notify each entity receiving notice of the hearing of such continuance and the date for the rescheduled hearing.

RULE 5095-1. REGISTRY FUND DEPOSIT OF FUNDS; WITHDRAWAL

(a) DEPOSIT OF FUNDS. Unless ordered otherwise or governed by Local Rule 7067-1, all monies coming into the registry of the court shall be deposited under 28 U.S.C. §2041 with the Treasurer of the United States without interest subject to withdrawal by order of the court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2042. If the court orders otherwise, counsel shall prepare a proposed order designating the depository, identifying the tax identification number of the entity responsible for any interest earned, and specifying all applicable terms of the deposit, stating that the parties assume all risks if any of the deposit, and providing that the parties, and not the clerk, are responsible for interest rates or renewal dates and all subsequent orders which may be necessary or appropriate. A deposit fee shall be collected by the clerk pursuant to the Judicial Conference Schedule of Fees.

(b) WITHDRAWAL OF UNCLAIMED DIVIDENDS. Withdrawal under 28 U.S.C. §2042 of funds deposited under §347 of the Code by any entity other than the original claimant or its successor is governed by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3001(e). For such purposes, the alleged transferee shall include the current name and address of the original claimant with the evidence of the transfer filed by the transferee. The clerk's notice shall be mailed to the transferee and to the original claimant at each address available.

If the trustee receives an offer in writing to purchase property being sold at private sale before the time to file an objection to the sale has

Stat. §115B.02, subd. 8 or other applicable law, or on which the trustee or debtor in possession believes environmental contamination or a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance may exist, the trustee or debtor in possession shall serve notice of the proposed abandonment on the Environmental Protection Agency and the Attorney General for the state where the property is located.

RULE 6072-1. TURNOVER PROCEEDINGS - MOTION

If upon demand an entity has refused to deliver to the trustee tangible property of a kind specified in §542(a) of the Code, the value of the property is less than $10,000 and the property is located within the District of Minnesota, the trustee may seek an order for turnover

Not later than 24 hours before the hearing on such motion, the parties shall file a statement setting forth the matters upon which they have been unable to agree, together with memoranda in support of or in opposition to their respective contentions. If the summons and complaint were served by mail and then returned by the postal service, the party seeking judgment shall disclose that to the court by affidavit. If the application for default judgment was served by mail and then returned by the postal service, the party seeking judgment shall disclose that to the court by affidavit. The court may, in its discretion, hold a hearing before entry of default judgment.

(a) OFFICIAL RECORD ON APPEAL. The original papers and exhibits filed in the bankruptcy case or adversary proceeding, the transcript of proceedings if any, and the docket of the bankruptcy case or adversary proceeding are the record on appeal. The fact that parts of the record on appeal are not included in the designated record or appendix shall not prevent the parties or the district court from relying on them.

(b) DESIGNATED RECORD. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this rule, the appellant and other parties shall designate in writing, in the manner otherwise provided in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8006, the particular papers of the official record on appeal to be included in the designated record. Each paper designated shall be described specifically by name of document and date filed. If the appellant or other party designates any transcript of proceedings or any part thereof, the party shall state in the designation the date the transcript was ordered and specify the parts ordered, and if no such transcript is to be ordered, the party shall include a statement in the designation to that effect.

(c) SEPARATE APPENDICES. In lieu of a designated record, the appellant and other parties may file, within ten days after the filing of the notice of appeal or entry of an order granting leave to appeal, a stipulation providing that the parties shall file with the clerk of the district court separate appendices prepared in the manner provided in Eighth Circuit Rule 30A(b)(3). Unless the district court orders otherwise, the parties shall serve and file with the clerk of the district court an original and two copies of their separate appendices along with their respective briefs. The parties also shall arrange for the clerk of the bankruptcy court to transmit transcripts or exhibits separately to the clerk of the district court in the manner provided in Eighth Circuit Rule 30A(b)(5).

(d) LIMITS. Parties to an appeal should include in the designated record or appendices only those parts of the official record on appeal they deem absolutely necessary to be transmitted to the district court. Except where they have independent relevance, memoranda of law should not be included in the designated record or appendices.

RULE 8006-2. STATEMENT OF ISSUES

The appellant shall file a statement of the issues to be presented on appeal in accordance with Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8006.

RULE 8007-1. COMPLETION OF RECORD - APPEAL (TRANSCRIPT)

If the court made findings of fact and conclusions of law on the record, the appellant shall order a transcript of proceedings for the portion of the proceeding where such findings or conclusions were made. In addition, the appellant or any other party may order a transcript of proceedings for any other portion of the proceeding relevant to the appeal.

RULE 8007-2. TRANSMISSION OF RECORD - APPEAL

Within 30 days after the notice of appeal is filed or an order granting leave to appeal is entered, the clerk shall transmit to the clerk of district court copies of: 1) the notice of appeal; 2) the judgment, order or decree appealed from; 3) the docket; 4) the statement of issues on appeal; 5) any opinion, findings of fact, and conclusions of law of the court; 6) the designated record or the stipulation for separate appendices. If a stipulation for separate appendices is filed, the clerk shall indicate in the transmittal that the appellant and other parties have agreed to file separate appendices. If the district court so orders, the clerk shall transmit copies of all or any part of the official record on appeal to the clerk of the district court, retaining the original of all such parts of the record in the clerk's files.

RULE 8010-1. FORM OF BRIEFS - APPEAL

The appellant's brief shall include an addendum placed at the end of the brief. The addendum shall include a copy of the judgment, order, or decree appealed from and a copy of any opinion, findings of fact and conclusions of law of the court. It may also include copies of not more than 15 pages of any other relevant material including copies of exhibits, limited excerpts from a transcript, excerpts from any part of the record on appeal, or items specified in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8010(b). The appellee's brief may include an addendum consisting of copies of not more than 15 pages of relevant material not included in the addendum to appellant's brief. References in a brief to papers in an addendum shall refer to the pages of the addendum where those papers appear.

RULE 8010-3. LENGTH OF BRIEFS - APPEAL

Briefs shall be prepared, served and filed in accordance with Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8009 and 8010, except that no party shall file a brief exceeding 35 pages, exclusive of addendum pages. If a reply brief is filed, the cumulative total of the original brief and the reply brief shall not exceed 35 pages, exclusive of addendum pages. An original and two copies of each brief shall be filed.

(b) IN DISTRICT COURT. Any motion to the district court for relief pending appeal under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8005, 8007(c) or 8011(d), except a motion to dismiss the appeal, shall show that the relief requested was first sought and not obtained from the bankruptcy court. The motion shall contain copies of such parts of the original record as may be appropriate. Upon the filing of an original and two copies of such motion and proof of delivery to all parties to the appeal, the clerk of the district court shall treat the motion as an appeal for statistical purposes, unless the appeal has been docketed already in the district court under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8007(b), and deliver the motion to a district judge for disposition.

RULE 8016-1. ENTRY OF JUDGMENT AND NOTICE

(a) BY CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT. Under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8016, upon decision on appeal by the district court under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8013, the clerk of the district court shall enter judgment and transmit a copy of the judgment as notice of entry and a copy of the decision to each party to the appeal, the clerk of bankruptcy court, and the United States Trustee.

(b) BY CLERK OF BANKRUPTCY COURT. Subject to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8017, the clerk of bankruptcy court shall file and enter the judgment and decision in the docket of the case or proceeding and the bankruptcy court shall enter such further order or judgment including taxation of costs as may be appropriate. If judgment of the district court is appealed to the court of appeals, upon receipt of a copy of the decision by the court of appeals from the clerk of the court of appeals under Fed. R.
