Re: Bankruptcy Case: Lawrence E. Weber

Case # 04-32132

04-3321

Dear Mr. Iannacone,

Herein enclosed is our response and answer to the Summons and Complaint dated July 21, 2004 and served upon, MJF Masonry and Concrete, Inc.

ANSWER

Defendant, MJF Masonry and Concrete, Inc., (hereafter referred to as "MJF"), for their Answer to Plaintiff, Lawrence E. Weber, Debtor, Michael J. Iannacone, Trustee. Defendant, MJF hereby states and alleges as follows:

FIRST DEFENSE

Defendant, MJF denies each and every matter alleged in Plaintiff's complaint except as hereinafter admitted, qualified or otherwise answered.

Defendant MJF, herein releases its interest and claims to the funds held by the Chapter 7 Trustee, for the benefit of the bankruptcy estate.

SECOND DEFENSE

Defendant, MJF herein has incurred additional costs in defending its position.

THIRD DEFENSE

Defendant, MJF, has suffered losses and expenses caused by the Debtor and recovery of the losses and expenses is unlikely.

Wherefore, Defendant, MJF, seeks a dismissal of the action involving MJF.

Signed:

Michael Fleischhacker, President of MJF Masonry and Concrete, Inc.
