Re: Robert L. Myers/Betty Ann Myers Bankruptcy # 04-33794 GFK

Dear Judge Kishel:

My name is Amy Myers and I am the ex-wife of Mr. Robert Myers, the subject debtor in the above referenced proceeding. Mr. Myers has filed for Chapter 13 bankruptcy relief and his petition has been assigned to your Honor. I would like to bring to your attention certain transpirings which I do not believe you have been made aware of. Mr Myers is presently in default in child support and remains in arrears of multiple court orders issued by the Supreme Court of the State of New York in the County of Nassau and the Family Court of the State of New York for the County of Nassau.

On June 25, 2003, Robert Myers initiated an emergency bankruptcy filing in an attempt to avoid appearing for contempt before Judge David Sullivan, Supreme Court of the State of New York for the County of Nassau on June 26, 2003. Mr. Myers is in default for non payment of court mandated legal fees. This emergency filing was clearly a last minute attempt to circumvent the judicial system and intentionally breach a Court Order. Due to these events, the contempt hearing was adjourned. I believe that Robert Myers may be required appear before Judge Sullivan regarding his contempt of a court order.

The Supreme Court agreement clearly states that I am to receive child support payments for our children Adam and Jason Myers in the amount of $260.00 per week. Refer to the Court Transcripts dated October 15, 2003, page 2, beginning with line 21. Effective May 16, 2004, Jason Myers was emancipated reducing child support payments to $130.00 for Adam Myers. This payment automatically withdraws from Mr. Myers' bi-weekly payroll check and deposits directly into my checking account. The last payment received for $260.00 was June 25 for the weeks ending June 25th and July 2nd. Mr. Myers is clearly in default and in violation of a court order. Mr. Myers has informed me via email that he was instructed by his attorney not to remit his child support payments. This is outrageous and contemptible. It is my understanding that child support and arrears are not dischargeable debts and the debtor remains responsible and Mr. Myers should continue to make his scheduled payments.

In addition to the above, Mr. Myers is in breach of Family Court agreement signed by Judge Dwyer. Please refer to attached Family Court Order He was so ordered to pay a specified monetary amount towards the accrued college expenses for a specified period. Once again no payments have been received pursuant to his attorney's instructions. This is another willful violation of a court order. The current outstanding balance on these expenses is Four Hundred and Twelve and 39/100 ($412.39) Dollars.

The Supreme Court of the State of New York issued an order requiring Mr. Myers to remit 10% of his gross salary each pay period to reduce his debt for child support and college expenses. Refer to attached Court Transcripts dated October 15, 2003, page 5 line 19. Although Mr. Myers has not been forthcoming with documentation to substantiate his income, he had been remitting $300.00 per pay period along with his required child support. Once again, since filing bankruptcy, these payments have also stopped. This is yet another violation of a court order. The current outstanding balance for child support and college expense arrears is Twenty Six Thousand Seven Hundred Twenty Six and 36/100 ($26,726.36) Dollars.

I would like to bring to your attention that our son Adam is entering his sophomore year at the University at Albany, State University of New York. The first tuition installment of two payments is due no later than August 11, 2004. Please refer to attached tuition bill. As per our stipulation of divorce and subsequent court orders, Mr. Myers is required to pay 50% of all college related expenses. The first payment of $1862.25 is to be paid equally. I will remit my share ($931.13), however Mr. Myers must pay his portion on time. The second installment for the fall semester is due within the next sixty days. If these payments are not made in a timely fashion, our son will be unable to attend classes in the fall. Please refer to attached Court Transcripts dated October 15, 2003, page 3 line 13.

I respectfully request that you look into this matter immediately to remedy this situation and ensure that all court ordered payments are brought up to date and made in a timely fashion going forward and Mr. Myers is not allowed to bypass the Court Orders which would have a adverse effect upon our son's education.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at anytime at 516-384-5728.

Thank you in advance for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Amy N. Myers
