| | | |  The court cannot accept a debtor's check or credit card for the filing fee. The filing fee may be paid in the exact amount of the fee by a money order, a cashier's check, debit card, or the credit card or check of a law firm or of an attorney representative admitted to practice before the U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota. |

See Bankruptcy Forms for Individuals for information on completing certain forms.

The Clerk's Office ECF preference is for attorneys to file the petition as the main document and all schedules and statements as attachments. For assistance, see the Filing Guidance for Filing Separate Attachments to a Main Document.

Debtors who are interested in receiving court-generated documents by email instead of paper copies must complete the Debtor's Electronic Noticing Request document. Each individual debtor must complete and sign the document. For further information, visit the court's DeBN page.
