

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA
THIRD DIVISION

In re: Chapter 7 Case
Scott Eugene and Kimberly BKY Case No. 3-89-00065
Rae Jongquist, ADV No. 3-90-250
Debtors.
Marlyn Edwin Duerkop,
Plaintiff,
v. MEMORANDUM ORDER
Scott Eugene Jongquist, Defendant.

This matter came before the Court on cross motions for summary judgment. Plaintiff Marlyn Edwin Duerkop (Duerkop) is represented by Terri A. Melcher. Defendant Scott Eugene Jongquist (Jongquist) is represented by Gregory P. Seamon. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. Sections 1334 and 157(a). The Court has jurisdiction to determine this matter under 28 U.S.C. Section 157(b)(2)(I). Based upon all the files and records in this case, being fully advised in the premises, the Court now makes the following Order pursuant to the Federal and Local Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

I.
FACTS

On January 9, 1989, Jongquist and his spouse filed their joint petition for Chapter 7 relief. Notice for the meeting of creditors held pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 341(a) was mailed to listed creditors on January 17, 1989, and the meeting took place on February 8, 1989. Jongquist's case was initially noticed as a "No Asset" case, and creditors were instructed: "Do NOT file claims at this time. Debtor schedules indicate no assets exist from which to receive a dividend." The filing deadline for complaints objecting the Debtors' discharge under 11 U.S.C. Section 523 and Section 727 was set as April 10, 1989, and was not extended. The Debtors' discharge was entered on April 11, 1989. On April 26, 1989, the Chapter 7 trustee notified the Clerk's Office that funds might be available for distribution to creditors. On May 1, 1989, the Clerk's Office sent its Notice to File Claims, setting a 90-day period under Bankruptcy Rule 3002(c)(5) during which creditor claims must be filed to be eligible for treatment on distribution as timely filed claims. The last date to timely file claims in this estate was July 31, 1989. Duerkop did not file a claim.

The Trustee's Final Report and Account Before Distribution was filed on December 20, 1989, and the notice of its proposed distribution issued on December 29, 1989, setting a 20-day period within which creditors might object to the proposed distribution.

The total balance on hand for distribution was $390, of which $336 was designated for payment of administrative expenses, leaving $54 available for distribution to unsecured creditors.

No objections to the proposed distribution were filed, and the Court issued its Order Pursuant to Notice Regarding Awards of Compensation Etc. and Trustee's Final Report and Account on January 22, 1990, approving compensation of $58.50 and reimbursement of $212 to the Trustee, and assessing $65.50 in court costs. Thereafter, administration of the bankruptcy estate was completed by the trustee in accordance with the United States Trustee's procedures. On June 14, 1990, the Court entered its Order Closing Asset Case and Discharging Trustee.

On January 13, 1990, several months after the deadline to timely file claims in the case had passed, counsel for Jongquist notified the Clerk's Office that Duerkop's claim, in the amount of $28,857.23, had been omitted from the Debtors' schedules filed with the petition, and requested instructions regarding how the creditor might be added to the matrix. On January 19, 1990, the Clerk's Office sent notice to Jongquist's counsel that a written request must be submitted providing the Clerk with the name and address for the omitted creditor, noting that a Final Report Before Distribution had been filed by the trustee. On January 24, 1990, Jongquist's counsel submitted a written request to add Duerkop to the matrix, and Duerkop was added on January 29, 1990, the same date that the U.S. Trustee issued its Directive for Distribution to the Chapter 7 trustee. No further activity was undertaken by any party until October 23, 1990, four months after the closing of the Debtors' case, when the present adversary proceeding was filed by Duerkop, seeking to have his debt declared nondischargeable under 11 U.S.C. Section 523(a)(3).

Duerkop asserts as support for his position that he was denied the opportunity of meaningful participation in the bankruptcy case due to lack of notice. The Debtor failed to list his debt in the schedules or on the initial matrix, and he was not informed of the bankruptcy proceeding from any other source in time to file his claim. Jongquist defends on the grounds that the creditor had knowledge of the trustee's proposed distribution in time to object to it, and to demand that the trustee prepare an amended distribution. In any event, Jongquist argues, any distribution received by Duerkop would have been de minimis in relation to the amount of his claim. Therefore, he asserts that this adversary proceeding is without merit and should be dismissed as frivolous harassment by the creditor.

II.

ISSUE

Is Duerkop entitled to judgment that his entire claim is nondischargeable under 11 U.S.C. Section 523(a)(3)?

III.

DISCUSSION

A creditor's right protected by 11 U.S.C. Section 523(a)(3) is the right to timely file a claim in a pending bankruptcy case. In re Mendiola, 99 B.R. 864, 866 (Bankr. N.D.Ill. 1989). What Duerkop lost in this case as a result of Jongquist's failure to properly schedule his claim or give other timely notice of the case was the right to timely file a proof of claim on or before July 31, 1989, and thereby share in the trustee's distribution to unsecured creditors, however small that distribution might be. Accordingly, Jongquist's argument that Duerkop had ample opportunity to object to the trustee's proposed distribution is ineffective as a defense to 11 U.S.C. Section 523(a)(3). An objection to the proposed distribution, and the tardy filing of his claim would not have permitted Duerkop to share pro rata with other unsecured creditors who timely filed their claims.

It is clear that Section 523(a)(3) produces a harsh result in this case. Had Duerkop's claim been properly scheduled or had he been timely notified of the case, the most he would have received was a distribution of a few dollars along with the other unsecured creditors. As a result of Jongquist's failure to schedule his claim or give Duerkop notice, Duerkop's debt is nondischargeable. This result is mandated by the clear language of the statute, which makes no distinction between minimal asset cases, and those in which substantial and meaningful distributions are made to creditors.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

1. Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment is granted.
2. Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment is denied.
3. Plaintiff is entitled to judgment that his debt in the amount of $28,857.23 plus interest, costs and disbursements is not discharged with the general discharge granted Defendant under 11 U.S.C. Section 727(a).

LET JUDGMENT BE ENTERED ACCORDINGLY.

Dated: April 9, 1991.

Dennis D. O'Brien
U.S. Bankruptcy Judge